Exodus 32-34: The Golden Calf

Rescue from slavery in Egypt, a walk through the Red Sea, Mount Sinai, the Ten Commandments, and the design for the Tabernacle – surely after such an amazing rescue that will be happily ever after now? Alas, not. Join us for this section of Exodus, in which we see how quickly things are very nearly ruined by a people who thought it was fine to create their own image of God, and how God graciously gives them another chance.

21st September	I like to think of God as... Exodus 32:1-14
28th September	God's covenant in pieces? Exodus 32:15-35
5th October	God's dangerous, but needed, presence Exodus 33
12th October	God's glorious name Exodus 34:1-8
19th October	God's covenant restored Exodus 34:9-35:3
